ALASKA, DENALI & THE YUKON

CRUISE/TOUR | ANCHORAGE TO VANCOUVER

AUG 8-20 | 13 DAYS | HOLLAND AMERICA LINE | MOST MEALS

JOURNEY LEADER

Alaska and the Yukon stand as some of the last frontiers of North America. Rugged peaks, raging rivers, and sweeping vistas paint a landscape that is both wild and breathtaking. For millennia, indigenous peoples like the First Nations and Inuit have thrived amid this untamed beauty. Later, prospectors left their mark during the 19th century gold rushes, flooding in to seek their fortunes. While a modern rush for oil has emerged, these areas remain largely untouched.

Join us as we explore these captivating landscapes, traversing the northlands of both Canada and the United States. We will visit iconic destinations like Anchorage, Denali National Park, Fairbanks, and the Gold Rush city of Dawson. Then, enjoy several nights of pampered luxury as we cruise Glacier Bay and the Inside Passage aboard the ms Koningsdam on our way to Vancouver.
