SMALL GROUP

SEP 18-OCT 4, 2025 | 17 DAYS | 35 MEALS
JOURNEY LEADERS: ALAN & JENNY INGRAM

Sossusvlei Sand Dunes, Namibia

Journey with us into a land untouched by time. Namibia stands as one of Africa's last refuges of the Bushman, a realm of grand vistas, stunning scenery, and sparse human population. Here, the dominance of nature becomes apparent, reducing humanity to mere observers of its grandeur. Formerly known as South West Africa, Namibia carries echoes of its German colonial past, evident in its cities and villages. Yet, it is in the untamed wilderness where Namibia truly shines. Namibia's landscape is a study in contrasts and harsh realities, where deserts meet seas and Bushmen traverse the unforgiving Kalahari. Endless sand seas stretch toward the horizon, punctuated by dunes soaring a thousand feet into cerulean skies. Ancient trees, resembling mere shrubs, tenaciously cling to life amidst the desert's harshness. In the interior, vast salt pans come alive during the brief wet season, drawing wildlife in search of sustenance. This is nature in its rawest form – both magnificent and unforgiving.

Join us on this extraordinary small group adventure. Secure your spot by enrolling before December 20, 2024, and save $300 per person!

SEP 21, Sunday

SESRIEM / SOSSUSVLEI

Travel across Southern Namibia, a vast, arid region with landscapes ranging from the desolate Namib in the west to the rolling Kalahari dunes in the east. Despite its starkness, this enchanting terrain, with its fascinating geological features, will captivate us. Upon arriving in Sesriem, we will witness the beginnings of the vast sand sea of the Namib Desert, with dunes rising a thousand feet and the sands of Sossusvlei stretching over 50 km to the sea. Depart from our lodge in the late afternoon on a leisurely drive on the lodge's private reserve. Watch the shadows lengthen as your guide takes you out to a panoramic location where sundowner drinks will be served as you relax and watch the spectacular sunset. The inner tranquility that a desert sunset imparts while you sit amongst nature is really something special. We will spend the next two nights at our exceptional half-tented lodge. Sossusvlei Lodge (2 nights) BLD

SEP 22, Monday SOSSUSVLEI SAND DUNES

After breakfast, we depart in 4x4 vehicles, navigating the inhospitable terrain of the dune sea along a gravel road flanked by spectacular sand dunes. Witness the dunes' colour transformation as the sun rises. Explore the vlei, a greyish-white clay pan surrounded by towering orange sand dunes. On our return to the hotel, we'll visit Sesriem Canyon, where the Tsauchab River has exposed millions of years of geological history. Optional scenic flights over the Namib Desert can be arranged at an extra cost. BLD

SEP 23, Tuesday SWAKOPMUND

Travel via the Kuiseb Canyon, a wild landscape crisscrossed by a maze of dry riverbeds, to the coast where the desert meets the ocean. Visit Swakopmund, known for its distinctive German colonial atmosphere. Discover the city's charms and German heritage through its historic buildings from the early 1900s, including the Swakopmund railway station (1901) and Hohenzollernhaus (1906) with its high mansard roof, elaborate mouldings, and statue of Atlas. The Hansa Hotel (2 nights) BL

SEP 24, Wednesday WALVIS BAY

A short scenic drive will bring us to Walvis Bay, nestled on a sheltered lagoon between the Atlantic Ocean and the golden-yellow dunes of the Namib. From the waterfront, embark on a marine cruise through the harbour and lagoon, with possible sightings of dolphins, seals, whales, sunfish, and abundant birdlife. After disembarking at the Lighthouse Jetty, board 4x4 vehicles for a beach and dune adventure to Sandwich Harbour, including a picnic lunch in the dunes (weather permitting). We return to our hotel in the late afternoon. Tonight, consider enjoying some local seafood. BL

SEP 25, Thursday DAMARALAND

Learn more about the Namib as we follow the fascinating Welwitschia Drive, discovering its geology, lichens, and unique plants. View the 'moon landscape' before travelling north along the desolate Skeleton Coast, known for its treacherous foggy shores that have claimed many ships. Heading inland, traverse the Erongo region, characterized by colourful volcanic landscapes, ancient rock art, and unusual geological phenomena. Visit the Damara Living Museum to experience traditional Damara culture, a unique form that exists nowhere else in Namibia or the world.

Twyfelfontein Lodge (2 nights) BLD

SEP 26, Friday DAMARALAND

This morning, explore some of Africa's finest prehistoric rock art at Twyfelfontein, featuring paintings and engravings dating back 5,000 years. This treasure trove, left by Stone Age artists, is one of the richest collections in Africa. Our journey through this stunning landscape includes opportunities to stretch our legs, examine interesting stones, plants, bugs, and other creatures, and photograph the amazing scenery. Visit the Organ Pipes, a mass of basalt slabs in a ravine carved by a river; Burnt Mountain, a small inselberg and national monument since 1956; and the Petrified Forest, with enormous fossilized tree trunks and welwitschia plants, reputed to live over 1,000 years. This afternoon, we'll search for desert elephant herds on an Aba-Huab River safari. BD

Zebra's grazing in Etosha Park, Namibia

SEP 27, SaturdayKAMANJAB / ETOSHA

Today, our drive takes us into the heart of northern Namibia, where we will encounter fascinating rock formations, vibrant colours, and unique plants, birds, and other wildlife. Our guide will bring to life the natural and human history of this remote and otherworldly region. A highlight of the day is a visit to a Himba village, where we will observe the semi-nomadic lifestyle of this local tribe and see how they maintain their traditions in such a harsh environment. Etosha Village (1 night) BLD

SEP 28, SundayETOSHA NATIONAL PARK

Discover the best Namibian game viewing in Etosha National Park, known as "the great white place of dry water." The Etosha Pan is a vast depression where water gathers and evaporates, creating salty plains that attract zebra, springbok, blue wildebeest, and their predators. Large game abounds, and the sky is ablaze with birds. We will spend the day driving through the park, stopping at rest camps to enjoy the wildlife. Our destination is a lodge with comfortable rooms, two pools, a spa, tennis courts, and a games room. Mokuti Game Lodge (2 nights) BD

SEP 29, MondayETOSHA NATIONAL PARK

Today, enjoy an early morning game drive in specially designed 4x4 open vehicles into Etosha National Park to search for wildlife. During the heat of the day, relax at the lodge, where you can enjoy the pool or take a walk in the private reserve. Late this afternoon, set out once again into the park in 4x4 safari vehicles to seek out both wildlife and birdlife. BD

SEP 30, TuesdayETOSHA PARK / OKONJIMA RESERVE

We journey to the picturesque private reserve south of Otjiwarongo, spanning 16,000 hectares and serving as the home of the Africat Foundation. Dedicated to conserving and protecting threatened cheetahs, leopards, and other wild carnivores of Namibia, the reserve boasts a substantial population of these majestic cats in their natural habitat. Later this afternoon, we'll embark on a 4x4 game drive, utilizing radio tracking to locate leopards and other big cats. Okonjima Plains Camp (2 nights) BLD

OCT 1, WednesdayOKONJIMA PRIVATE RESERVE

Enjoy a full day in the reserve with morning and evening excursions. In the morning, we'll visit the Africat Carnivore Care Centre, where various big cats are treated and rehabilitated for reintroduction into the wild. Later this evening, at the nocturnal hide, we may observe nocturnal wildlife such as porcupines, honey badgers, caracals, and more. BLD

OCT 2, ThursdayCENTRAL NAMIBIA / WINDHOEK

On our way to Windhoek, we'll make a stop in Okahandja, renowned for its vast outdoor woodcarvers market. Arriving in Windhoek, Namibia's capital, in the early afternoon, you'll have the remainder of the day to explore at your leisure. Our resort hotel boasts a picturesque setting surrounded by a golf course, spacious gardens, and an inviting outdoor swimming pool.

Windhoek Country Club (1 night) BLD

OCT 3, FridayWINDHOEK / HOME

As our adventure comes to an end, we transfer to the airport to catch our return flights to Canada. B

OCT 4, SaturdayARRIVE CANADA

We arrive in Canada and transfer to our home cities, as we bid farewell to our fellow travellers, carrying with us cherished memories of our Namibian odyssey.
