JOURNEY LEADER: WENDY MARSHALL

Shore Temple Mahabalipuram

The lands of India have long fascinated world travellers for their immense diversity. India is home to a diverse range of religious and cultural traditions, including ancient Hindu and Buddhist beliefs, as well as early Christian and Islamic influences.

This unique journey has been planned to bring us to the less visited regions of southern India, where lifestyles have been less affected by outside influences. India's deeply religious roots, whether they be Hindu or Christian, are very easily observed on a daily basis.

We will discover magnificent rock carvings by the seashore, stroll through bustling temple complexes of Thanjavur and Madurai, marvel at the spice markets, wildlife preserves, and wonderful beaches in Kerala. Everywhere we go, we will admire the magnificent scenery, religious traditions, and uncomplicated lifestyles of India. Designed for adventurous travellers, this itinerary is for those who are looking to discover something new and different and who are willing to accept and to appreciate the cultural and physical differences that they will encounter.
