MAY 9, Saturday

DEPART CANADA

Tour members from across Canada will gather for their overnight flights to Seoul.

MAY 10, Sunday

SEOUL, SOUTH KOREA

We arrive in Seoul in the late afternoon and head to our hotel right in the heart of the city.

Courtyard by Marriott Seoul Namdaemun (3 nights)

MAY 11, Monday

SEOUL

Our first morning in Seoul begins at Changdeokgung Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site built in 1405 during the Joseon Dynasty as the second royal palace, and its tranquil Secret Garden (Huwon). From there, we explore Bukchon Hanok Village, the only place in Seoul where hundreds of hanoks (traditional houses) line the streets, preserving a rare piece of the city's history. We then continue to Myeongdong Street for an exciting mix of high-end brand stores, local boutiques, and street vendors, before ending the day at Namdaemun Market, the largest traditional market in Korea. Dinner tonight is at a local restaurant.

MAY 12, Tuesday

DEMILITARIZED ZONE (DMZ)

After the Korean War (June 1950–July 1953), South and North Korea moved in opposite directions, establishing a border that split the Korean Peninsula in half. Stretching 2 km on either side of this line, the DMZ is the most heavily armed border in the world. Today, it is safe and welcoming for visitors, offering rare glimpses into the enigmatic state of North Korea. Our tour includes Imjingak Park, the DMZ film presentation, the Freedom Bridge, the Exhibition Hall, the 3rd Infiltration Tunnel (almost one mile long), Dora Observatory, and Dorasan Station. Back in the capital, we take in the bold, modern architecture of the Dongdaemun Design Plaza. BLD

MAY 13, Wednesday SEOUL / GYEONGJU

This morning we board a KTX bullet train to Gyeongju, capital of the Silla Dynasty, which ruled Korea for nearly a millennium. We visit Bulguksa Temple, a masterpiece of Silla architecture and a testament to the Buddhist faith of the era. Together with the nearby Seokguram Grotto, it is a UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Site and home to seven national treasures as well as other important relics. At the Daereungwon Tomb Complex, we see Cheonmachong Tomb, a typical upper-class burial from the Silla period. We also explore Gyeongju Donggung Palace and Wolji Pond, once a secondary palace for the crown prince and a venue for royal banquets and important guests.

Lahan Select Gyeongju (2 nights) BLD

MAY 14, Thursday ANDONG

Visit the UNESCO-listed Hahoe Folk Village, founded in the 14th–15th centuries and known for its well-preserved Joseon-era architecture and arts. Stroll across Woryeonggyo Bridge, Korea's longest wooden pedestrian bridge, stretching 387 metres over the Andong Dam. Then, make your way to the Hahoe Mask Museum, home to an impressive collection of masks from Korea and beyond, including the iconic Hahoe masks. BLD

MAY 15, Friday GYEONGJU / BUSAN

Our next stop is Busan, South Korea's second-largest city, known for its beaches, temples, shopping, and fresh seafood. We'll begin at Haedong Yonggungsa, one of the country's few seaside Buddhist temples, before visiting Haeundae Beach. Nearby on Dongbaekseom Island is the Nurimaru APEC House, built for the 2005 APEC summit and now open to visitors. Back in the city, we'll stop at the United Nations Memorial Cemetery, the only one in the world dedicated to UN forces. We'll also visit the National Memorial Museum of Forced Mobilization under Japanese Occupation, which shares the stories of Koreans forced into labour or military service under Japanese rule.

Ramada Encore by Wyndham Haeundae (2 nights) BLD

MAY 16, Saturday BUSAN

Learn about Korean cuisine with a hands-on bibimbap-making experience—a traditional dish of rice, vegetables, protein, and gochujang (chili paste). Pair your meal with makgeolli, a light, sparkling rice wine. Next, we'll visit Jagalchi Fish Market, Korea's largest seafood market, before strolling through the bustling streets of BIFF Square and Gukje Market. Later, we'll head up Busan Tower for panoramic city views. BLD

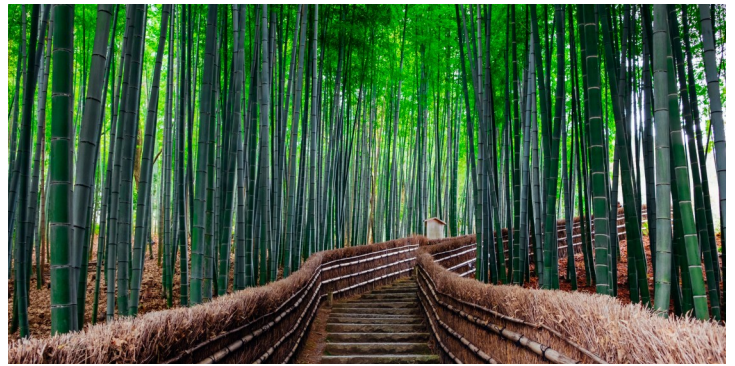

MAY 17, Sunday BUSAN / FUKUOKA, JAPAN

Bid farewell to South Korea as we take a flight across the Korea Strait to Japan's Kyushu Island. Our gateway and first stop is Fukuoka. Explore the Hakata district famous for its ramen shops and bustling side streets. Fukuoka Tower offers great skyline views and views of the nearby Ohori Park.

Hotel Monterey Fukuoka (3 nights) BD

Haedong Yonggungsa Temple in Busan, South Korea

Memorial Park, two moving sites that offer deep insights into the events that shaped the city. Later, we'll explore Glover Garden, an open-air museum with beautifully preserved 19th-century Western-style buildings, picturesque grounds, and panoramic harbour views. BLD

MAY 19, Tuesday KUMAMOTO

Journey inland to Kumamoto, home to the magnificent Kumamoto Castle. Although the main keep was damaged in the 2016 earthquake, the surrounding grounds and impressive stone walls remain a splendid example of Edo-era architecture. You'll have time to take in the castle's majesty and see the ongoing restoration work. Next, we'll visit Suizenji Jojuen Garden, a meticulously maintained traditional Japanese garden with miniature landscapes, clear ponds, and charming tea houses — an ideal spot for a peaceful stroll and reflection. BLD

MAY 20, Wednesday FUKUOKA / BEPPU

Beppu is a city on Kyushu's eastern coast, renowned for its hot springs. Visit the Chinoike Jigoku (Blood Pond Hell) and Umi Jigoku (Sea Hell), captivating geothermal spectacles with vividly coloured ponds and active steam vents. Then, take in sweeping views of the city from Beppu Tower before returning to our hotel to unwind in the onsen (hot spring bath), a quintessential Japanese experience.
