WEST AFRICA

CRUISE CAPE TOWN TO LISBON

OCEANIA CRUISES • OCEANIA SIRENA
MARCH 26 - APRIL 24, 2026 | 30 DAYS | MOST MEALS
JOURNEY LEADERS: DAVID & ROSLYN CRAIG

West Africa is one of the world's least visited coastlines, and one of its most fascinating. This journey begins with four days in Cape Town, where you'll take in the city's dramatic landscapes and spend time exploring the surrounding wine country.

Later, we'll board Oceania Sirena for a 24-day voyage along the Atlantic coast, covering more than 9,500 kilometres. The itinerary features destinations few travellers ever reach. From the deserts of Namibia to the rainforests of Sao Tome, and on to Ghana, Togo, Senegal, The Gambia, Cape Verde, and Morocco, each stop offers a new perspective on the region's heritage, traditions, and way of life.

Aboard Sirena, you'll enjoy spacious staterooms, welcoming public spaces, and the attentive service Oceania is known for. Between ports, take in a lecture, catch an evening show, or dine at your choice of venues, including the Grand Dining Room, Terrace Café, Tuscan Steak, and Red Ginger. For those drawn to places less travelled, this is a rare opportunity to experience West Africa in depth and in comfort.

Ports of Call

CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA: It's difficult to get lost in Cape Town because gorgeous Table Mountain looms above the city as a reference. For breathtaking views, ride the cable car to the top, or explore this urbane city on foot. Visit the fascinating South African Museum and Planetarium and the culturally significant St. George's Cathedral. Located next to our hotel, the V&A Waterfront offers a wide variety of shopping and dining options.

LUDERITZ, NAMIBIA: Founded in 1883 by a wealthy German merchant of the same name, Luderitz offers colourful colonial architecture along the beautiful Atlantic coastline. Explore the region's past on a tour of Kolmanskop, a ghost town that was once a bustling centre of the diamond trade. The recently restored waterfront offers lovely Art Nouveau architecture, and the coastal waters are home to penguins, dolphins, sharks, and seals.

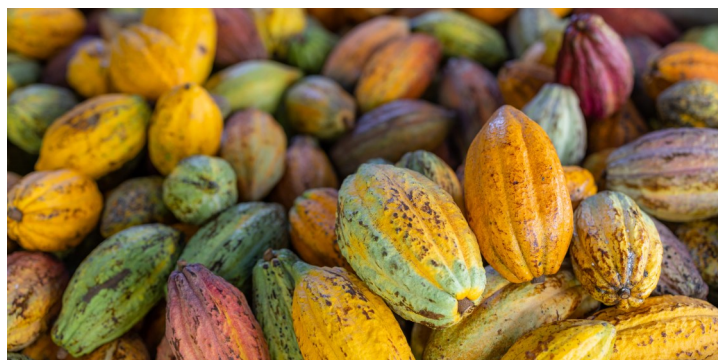

WALVIS BAY, NAMIBIA: Although rimmed by the inhospitable Namib Desert, Walvis Bay boasts a huge natural lagoon that attracts hundreds of thousands of birds, including flamingos, pelicans and migratory species. The desert's Dune 7 is the highest sand dune near town and offers a spectacular view. The wooden Rhenish Mission Church is also noteworthy.

Take an optional excursion in Sao Tome to learn how its renowned chocolate is made

SAO TOME, SAO TOME AND PRINCIPE: Off the beaten path, Sao Tome and Principe is a tropical paradise that offers lush rainforests, birdwatching, secluded waterfalls and pristine, isolated beaches. Enjoy spectacular views on a hike to the peak of Pico de Sao Tome, go in search of the 109 species of orchid that decorate the landscape, or marvel at the impressive Boca do Inferno blowhole.

LOME, TOGO: Wedged between a lagoon and the Atlantic Ocean, Togo's convivial, beach-rich capital of Lome has emerged from its colonial past as pure African. For a glimpse of its history and unique Togolese art, visit the National Museum. The spired Lome Cathedral is also noteworthy.

SEKONDI-TAKORADI, GHANA: The twin city of Sekondi-Takoradi was Ghana's first deepwater seaport and has prospered greatly. Still, the ambiance is rather laid-back, especially in the inviting beach areas. Monkey Hill, a tropical reserve for primates, lies in the heart of the city. Nearby Fort Orange was built by the Dutch in the 17th century and now serves as a lighthouse.

ABIDJAN, IVORY COAST: The Ivory Coast's largest city and former capital, skyscraper-studded Abidjan curves around placid Ebrie Lagoon. Being one of the world's largest French-speaking cities, it's often referred to as the "Paris of Africa." Abidjan's more affluent Le Plateau and Cocody neighbourhoods exude a palpable European ambiance.

BANJUL, GAMBIA: Although the capital of Gambia, Banjul remains one of Africa's smallest cities. Nestled on St. Mary's Island at the mouth of the Gambia River, it exudes a village-like atmosphere. Spend a carefree day admiring the 19th-century architecture in MacCarthy Square or visiting the landmark King Fahad Mosque with its twin minarets.

DAKAR, SENEGAL: After three centuries of French rule, Dakar can't help but exude a certain French flair, most notably in its architecture. Senegalese attire tends to be rather formal and conservative, but the city is full of life. Art galleries are plentiful, the beaches inviting, and the views fantastic from the Les Mamelles Lighthouse.

MINDELO (SAO VICENTE), CAPE VERDE: Enjoy charming Sao Vicente and the amazing landscape here and on nearby Santo Antao. Stroll through town past vibrant markets and the replica of Lisbon's Belem Tower. Visit the stark but lovely lunar-like beach at Catfish Bay. On Santo Antao see lush and rugged landscapes and picturesque villages.

ARRECIFE (LANZAROTE), SPAIN: Soft breezes caress this small volcanic island just 79 miles off the west coast of Africa. A land of contrasts: you can explore some of the world's most spectacular caves in the morning and relax on a white sand beach in the afternoon.

AGADIR, MOROCCO: Visit the 16th-century kasbah atop the hill with its expansive views over the Atlantic, the new city and the beaches. Visit a Berber village and stroll through its alleys and browse in its souks. Or head off towards the Souss Valley with the Atlas Mountains as a backdrop to Taroudant, an ancient fortress town.

LISBON, PORTUGAL: With so much to offer, consider extending your vacation to explore Lisbon and beyond. Visit the iconic Belém Tower and historic Alfama district, or venture to the royal retreat of Sintra, the coastal charm of Cascais, medieval Obidos, and the sacred site of Fatima.

Mindelo, Sao Vicente, Cape Verde
