BRAHMAPUTRA CRUISE & THE DRUK WANGYAL FESTIVAL
NOV 26-DEC 17, 2026 • 22 DAYS • 54 MEALS
JOURNEY LEADERS: JON & SUE GURR

Tiger's Nest: Bhutan's iconic cliffside monastery and sacred pilgrimage site

Cruise the mighty Brahmaputra, one of the few navigable rivers sourced from the Himalayas, as you journey through Assam's lush tea estates, vibrant villages, and UNESCO-listed Kaziranga, home to the world's largest population of one-horned rhinos. Witness centuries-old dance rituals on Majuli, the world's largest river island. Then, ascend to Bhutan, where a deep commitment to cultural heritage and community well-being shapes everyday life. Hike to the legendary Tiger's Nest, join locals at a lively Himalayan festival and find quiet beauty in forested valleys laced with prayer flags and riverside dzongs. From the bustling streets of Kolkata to the peaceful heights of Bhutan, each day brings moments you'll never forget, and stories you'll want to tell.

Journey Leaders

Jon and Sue Gurr have explored more than 80 countries across all seven continents, capturing the spirit of their travels through photography. With over 40 years of experience, Jon, a certified professional photographer, looks forward to offering a few photography tips along the way, while both he and Sue are excited to share their passion for travel with you on this unforgettable journey.

NOV 29, Sunday KOLKATA / JORHAT

Fly to Jorhat and embark on our riverboat. Enjoy the afternoon cruising and an evening talk on Sivasagar and the Ahom civilization. mv Mahabaahu (7 nights) BLD

NOV 30, Monday SIVASAGAR / TEA ESTATE

Drive through the scenic Assamese countryside to Sivasagar, the 13th-century capital of the Ahom dynasty. Later, we tour Haroocharai tea estate to learn about Assam tea, a variety grown only here and in parts of China. Savour a buffet lunch of traditional Assamese cuisine, a tea tasting, and an insightful talk with tea experts. BLD

DEC 1, Tuesday MAJULI / MISHING VILLAGE

Rise early for optional yoga before heading to Majuli, the world's largest river island, for a performance by Satriya singers and dancers. At Kamalabari Satra, Vaishnavite priests bring ancient devotion to life through rhythmic chants and dances. Later, visit a Mishing village. This evening, following dinner and a talk on Assam's geography, we relax under the stars on a deserted island. BLD

DEC 2, Wednesday KAZIRANGA EASTERN RANGE

Walk through a traditional village built on bamboo stilts, reflecting the unique lifestyle of the Mishing people. Watch women weaving colourful textiles beneath their raised homes. Then, sail to Kaziranga for a two-hour boat safari, exploring the river's edge in small tenders. This evening features a cooking demonstration by the chef. BLD

DEC 3, Thursday BISHWANATH GHAT / SILGHAT

Explore Bishwanath Ghat, a village where weavers, fishermen, and boatmakers shape daily life. Continue to Silghat to tour a cooperative jute mill and see how this golden fibre is processed. At the Kaliabore Tea Estate, visit the factory to learn how Assam's famous tea is cultivated and processed. Return to the ship for a lively cultural dance performance by local artists. BLD

DEC 4, Friday KAZIRANGA NATIONAL PARK

Begin the day early with a sunrise elephant safari through the misty grasslands of Kaziranga, looking for swamp and hog deer, wild water buffalo, and the park's iconic one-horned rhinoceros. After breakfast at the resort, set out on a jeep safari for another opportunity to encounter Kaziranga's diverse wildlife. Spend a relaxing afternoon onboard before an Assamese-themed evening featuring regional music and a specially curated dinner. BLD

DEC 5, Saturday BANGLA VILLAGE / PEACOCK ISLAND

Morning yoga is offered this morning as the ship sails toward a river island inhabited by a Bangla-speaking Muslim farming community. After lunch, we dock at Peacock Island, home to the sacred Umananda Temple. Later, we gather for a farewell dinner, "Alvida Bhoj." BLD

DEC 6, Sunday GUWAHATI / PARO, BHUTAN

After disembarking, we visit Kamakhya Temple, one of India's oldest Shakti shrines, before flying to Paro, the gateway of Bhutan. DEC 17, Thursday CANADA
 Arriving in Toronto this morning, we make connections to our homes across Canada.

CT Rating 4/5 - Very Challenging: Members must be in excellent physical health with no mobility issues to fully enjoy this trip. Excursions include jeep safaris over rough terrain, river safaris (in rubber boats), an elephant ride, and some extensive hikes, walks and climbs (including stairs). Expect infrastructure typical of developing regions, such as uneven roads and basic facilities. In Bhutan, members will travel and walk at altitudes between 5,000–10,000ft and may experience altitude sickness. Temperatures will range from cool evenings to hot days. Members should be prepared for the realities of remote India and Bhutan.

Cruise Note: River cruising in India is an adventurous experience. Assam's tourism infrastructure is being developed to meet growing interest. While we use the best equipment available, expect varying vehicle and road standards. Wildlife sightings are not guaranteed. Please note that this itinerary is subject to weather and river conditions, and may be adjusted for your safety and comfort by the Captain/Cruise Director. The Brahmaputra River experiences seasonal changes, with islands and sand bars appearing and disappearing between sailings.
