Taormina's ancient Greek theatre overlooking Sicily, with Mount Etna beyond

Join us in spring, when Malta and Sicily are at their most beautiful. Wildflowers blanket the countryside, citrus groves burst into bloom, and comfortable temperatures create ideal conditions for exploring these remarkable Mediterranean islands. Together, these islands offer an exceptional blend of history, culture, scenery, and cuisine.

Situated at the crossroads of the Mediterranean, Malta and Sicily have been shaped by centuries of Greek, Roman, Arab, Norman, French, and British influence. From prehistoric temples older than Egypt's pyramids to magnificent cathedrals, and elegant Baroque towns, their rich heritage is evident throughout the islands.

Beyond the history, discover charming fishing villages, dramatic coastlines, scenic landscapes, and some of the finest food and wine in the Mediterranean. Along the way, we will enjoy authentic local experiences, regional cuisine, wine tastings, and opportunities to connect with local traditions.

With extended stays and free time built into the itinerary, we will have the opportunity to explore at a comfortable pace while experiencing the many sides of Malta and Sicily. As many historic sites are best explored on foot, this tour is best suited for travellers who are comfortable walking through historic town centres and on uneven surfaces.

We gather for our overnight flights to Malta.

APR 8, Thursday

VALLETTA, MALTA

Our journey starts this evening as we arrive in Malta, an island whose story spans more than eight millennia. The islands were first settled in prehistoric times by seafarers from nearby Sicily. The name Malta is believed to be derived from the Greek word meli ("honey"), a nod to the island's long tradition of beekeeping and honey production. Valletta, the capital, was founded by the Order of St. John following the Great Siege of 1565 and became the Knights' new fortified city after their loss of Rhodes to the Ottoman Empire in 1522. Our home for the next five nights is a waterfront hotel in the heart of Sliema.

APR 9, Friday

VALLETTA

We begin our morning at the Malta Experience, an immersive audio-visual journey through the island's dramatic history. Afterward, a walking tour guides us through the historic streets, winding alleys, and vibrant squares of Valletta. Along the way, we'll step into the Co-Cathedral of St John to marvel at its magnificent marble floors and lapis lazuli altar, followed by a visit of the Grand Master's Palace. After a special lunch at Muza (or similar), the afternoon is yours to explore independently or visit the National Museum of Archaeology inside the spectacular Auberge de Provence. BL

APR 10, Saturday ISLAND OF GOZO

Today's excursion takes us to Malta's sister island, Gozo, known for its quaint fishing villages, rural charm, and dramatic landscapes. Highlights of the day include the Citadel in Victoria, the Ggantija megalithic temples (a UNESCO World Heritage Site), the beautiful Basilica of Ta' Pinu, and the viewpoint at Calypso's Cave, associated with Homer's odyssey. Along the northern coast, we also stop at the Xwejni Salt Pans to learn about the centuries-old tradition of salt harvesting. We then enjoy lunch in Victoria, followed by free time to explore the town at leisure and walk up to the historic Citadel for panoramic views across the island. BL

APR 11, Sunday MDINA / RABAT

Journey to the central hills for a leisurely walk through the fortified Saracen city of Mdina, the island's ancient capital—a peaceful citadel filled with graceful palaces, churches, and piazzas. The arrival of Christianity dates from 60 AD, when St. Paul is believed to have arrived on Malta. Visit the Cathedral of St. Paul before we move on to Rabat and visit the Wignacourt Museum to explore St Paul's Grotto, plus sections of the catacombs. Enjoy a hands-on Maltese cooking experience: after a short introduction to traditional breadmaking, we learn how to prepare ftira dough, a Maltese sourdough flatbread often compared to a pizza. Add toppings to create your own lunch cooked in a traditional wood-burning oven. Finally, enjoy a special opportunity to meet local residents as we explore a small, seldom-visited village and learn about everyday life in Malta. BL
