From the lush countryside of Kent to the rolling hills of the Cotswolds and the floral prestige of Chelsea, this tour offers a deep dive into British horticultural excellence.

Go behind the garden gates of England's most prestigious estates. From the romantic 'outdoor rooms' of Sissinghurst to the avant-garde landscapes of The Newt in Somerset, discover the soul of the English countryside through its private sanctuary walls.

Our journey begins in the rolling hills of Sussex and the medieval charm of Salisbury, where history and nature intertwine. You'll experience the nostalgic elegance of heritage rail, the sophisticated flavours of award-winning English vineyards, and the timeless golden stone of the Cotswolds. Along the way, we balance grand scale with intimacy, featuring private garden visits and a hands-on floral design masterclass in the heart of Chipping Campden.

The grand finale brings us to London, where royal history at Hampton Court and botanical innovation at Kew Gardens are the opening act for the ultimate floral event: the RHS Chelsea Flower Show. This itinerary is more than a tour; it is a celebration of the artistry, passion, and heritage that make the British garden a wonder of the world. Join us for a blooming adventure through the very best of England.

Journey Leaders

Peter and Janet Holmes' shared love of gardening began with visits to Victoria's Butchart Gardens and deepened during twenty-five years, living just steps from Toronto's Muir Gardens. Now, their Grey County garden brings them great joy. Janet, a retired RN, is cherished for her empathetic spirit. Peter, recently retired from Toronto's Yorkminster Park Church, is beloved for his warmth and imaginative storytelling. They enjoy cycling, walking, kayaking, and, above all, gardening. After travelling Europe, Israel, and the Middle East, they continue to cherish time with their three children and granddaughter.
