PORTS OF CALL

Half Moon Cay, Bahamas: Holland America Line’s pristine private island offers everything you need for a day of play in paradise: a two-mile crescent of perfect beach; an interior lagoon; beachside cabanas with butler service, showers and misters; and all manner of watersports and activities, including a buoied personal watercraft course.

Grand Turk, Turks and Caicos: Named for the fez-like scarlet blossoms of the cactus that grows here, Grand Turk is a pristine place of simple pleasures. You might be interested in floating dreamily over vibrant coral reefs and dine on conch fritters.

Amber Cove, Dominican Republic: Amber Cove is your gateway for adventure on the Dominican Republic’s north coast. Shop for authentically sourced crafts in the marketplace, dine on delicious local cuisine or head out to discover Damajagua Cascades (27 Waterfalls).

Kralendijk, Bonaire: The priority here is preservation. Pristine, unspoiled reefs and Lac Bay, one of the top dive spots in the world. Take in the blush of thousands of pink flamingos at the sanctuary at Pekel Meer.

Willemstad, Curacao: The vistas of this charming port city embrace you from three sides: gabled storybook houses; a harbour that cuts through the city like an Amsterdam canal; and beautifully restored Dutch colonial buildings brimming with duty-free treasures.

Oranjestad, Aruba: You can explore the colourful floating markets, head to the beach or even venture into the countryside to see the green parakeet, the unique gardens of Casibari and the curious divi divi tree.

Philipsburg, St. Maarten: Philipsburg is the capital of the Dutch section of this wonderful island (called Saint Maarten), and lies on a gentle arc of land with a river water lake to the north and a bay to the south.

Castries, Saint Lucia: You can enjoy the bustling market of Castries, volcanic Sulphur Springs, the towering Pitons and, of course, the lush vegetation. Those with a desire to step back through time may want to go for a hike in Pigeon Island National Park.

Bridgetown, Barbados: Barbados is what England might look like if it had taken a tropical vacation years ago and decided to stay put. Cricket is the national sport, afternoon tea is a given, and motorists hug left. See the British influence in the historic old section of town, which has been singled out as a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Fort-de-France, Martinique: This city is an exotic blend of French and Creole cultures. You can buy a Madras headdress or a Parisian silk scarf here or if you feel hungry you can either enjoy French specialties such as croissant or more exotic flavours as in a coconut pastry.

St. John’s, Antigua and Barbuda: Explore St. John’s, where the baroque towers of St. John’s Cathedral stand guard, visit the Museum of Antigua and Barbuda and see Arawak and colonial antiques. Barbuda is also home to one of the region’s most significant bird sanctuaries.

St. Thomas, US Virgin Islands: The lovely, European-influenced port of Charlotte Amalie wins the prize for Caribbean shopping thrills. You might want to enjoy endless succession of sandy crescents and protected coves or take the aerial tram up to Paradise Point.

Fort Lauderdale, Florida, US: Newly redesigned Fort Lauderdale Beach and cafes allow a nice stroll along the historic Riverwalk; or simply enjoy the luxurious stores on Las Olas Boulevard or even venture to the Everglades for an intriguing air boat excursion.
